Growing With You

SILVIA

the CAREER DOCTOR

Growing up when everyone wanted to be a doctor, lawyer, pilot. I always wanted to be a news anchor. I thought it was cool to be that voice that everyone sits still to listen to.

My 14 years' experience has driven me to building my craft. Looking back, I may not be sitting in newsrooms, but I have been part of brands that are constantly striving every day to make a difference. Brands that have allowed me to be a voice that people sit still to listen to. I am lucky to have worked under leaders who shaped me and believed in my voice, even when sometimes it was shaky.

I am passionate about people and results.
